

JOIN US IN HELPING 3,000 YORK COUNTY

FAMILIES ACHIEVE FINANCIAL STABILITY BY 2030

York County, SC at a glance

13%

of working families with at least one worker live below the federal poverty level

16%

of households in York County earn less than $25,000 a year

Below are just some of the ways we are battling the cycle of poverty

Workforce Development

Providing job training, GED or Vocational Degree, and Credential Programs that lead to employment with a livable wage

Enrolling individuals in internships and/or apprenticeships with the goal of full time employment

Financial Literacy

Offering financial literacy courses, coaching, budgeting, and personal finance training to help families become self-sufficient

Supportive Services

Supporting families along a path to financial stability through programs for dependents to assist with monthly expenses