

WHERE YOUR DOLLAR GOES

How you are helping 3,000 York County families achieve financial stability by 2030

13%

of working families with at least one worker live below the federal poverty level.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Providing job training, GED or Vocational Degree, and Credential Programs that lead to employment with a livable wage.

Enrolling individuals in internships and/or apprenticeships with the goal of full-time employment.

Bringing employment services to the underserved population of adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Equipping individuals with employment and life skills to help underemployed workers advance their career.

Offering Microsoft Office program certification for adult learners.

Empowering single fathers to obtain their GED or higher education.

85%

industry trained

Opportunities for students to complete advanced level coursework to graduate career ready.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

Providing financial literacy courses, coaching, budgeting, and personal finance training to help families become self-sufficient.

Teaching individuals how to make their money work smarter.

Working with individuals to get through a financial hardship and budget for the future.

200%
of the poverty line or lower

The individuals you help support live at 200% or below of the federal poverty line. This means a family of 3 (one working adult and two children) is earning $43,440 or less.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES

Supporting families along a path to financial stability through programs for dependents to assist with monthly expenses.

Offering programs for childcare, adult care, and after school care.

Gifting parents and caregivers the freedom of time to pursue employment and add to their income.

16%

of households in York County earn less than $25,000 a year.

JOIN US IN OUR BOLD GOAL

Providing pathways to prosperity for York County citizens

United Way of York County, SC is creating partnerships to raise working families in our community to self-sufficiency by focusing on underemployment and financial literacy. We aim to offer effective opportunities for low-to-moderate-income working families to rise out of poverty to a level of self-sufficiency.

Will you join us in creating a financially stable community where everyone thrives?